

Be Grateful for all Your Skills and Talents

Rabbi Zelig Pliskin

Thank You! Gratitude: Formulas, Stories, and Insights

The Almighty has blessed each of us with our unique mixture of skills, talents, and inner resources. Be grateful to Him for each and every one. This gratitude enables you to maintain humility at the same time as you recognize and appreciate those gifts. Humility does not mean that you deny the gifts you were given. Rather it means that you have a high level of gratitude.
